INTRODUCTION

POWER SUPPLY & TAPE Cassettes

Example

1/6" Length

APPLICATION SYMBOLS

Entering Accented Characters

Do not use metallic articles, such as tweezers or a metallic pen, when exchanging the print head.

To prevent damage or breakage, do not drop or hit the machine/AC adapter and press the power button. Turn off the machine when replacing the batteries. Time/Date settings will also be cleared.)

Do not use old and new batteries together or mix alkaline batteries with other type batteries.

The setting has cleared when an error message is displayed on the LCD. The machine has been turned off when replacing the batteries.

If the tape cassette is empty, replace it.

After you have turned on the machine, you must remove the new batteries and turn off the machine before replacing them. If the batteries are correctly inserted, replace the tape cassette and use a dry cotton swab to gently wipe the tape cassette and feed mechanism. Cut the tape cassette and use a dry cotton swab to gently wipe the feed mechanism. Cut the tape sheet and use a dry cotton swab to gently wipe the feed mechanism.

Do not try to print labels using an empty tape cassette in the P-touch labeler. Doing so will damage the machine.

The machine automatically turns off if no keys are pressed within 5 minutes.

To cancel operations, press .

You can insert the desired time and date to your text at the touch of a button.

To select the format of Time/Date:

8 Formats are available for printing time and date.

You can save your original labels on to your machine. Up to nine labels can be saved.

File (Memory)

To select format (Print Option): you may select printing mode (Print or Print+Store) after pressing the Print button.

You can select a default setting for the clock setting. To change the clock setting:

Press the Print button. The current date and time are displayed and a beep tone sounds.