Important Security Information

Factory Default Enabled Network Services List

Network Interfaces

None

Network Services

None

Security Measures for Product Installation

Unauthorized users may cause unforeseen issues by physically accessing or remotely manipulating the product through the network. Ensure that the product is installed in a location with adequate security measures in place. Also, to ensure the safety of communication, use WPA2 or WPA3 as the security setting when connecting to a wireless LAN for communication.